

Activity 5: Why is Marcus Rashford a role model?

Learning objective: To understand how change can be made when passionate about Social Action.

Skills objective: Present your findings.

#WeWill: Reflect, Progress and Inspire #WeWill Skills: Communication - Research, Presentation skills.	National Curriculum: English
--	-------------------------------------

Role models

The main objective of this lesson is to ensure that pupils understand what a role model is, especially in terms of social action and working within the community at the local and national levels.

Research from the following articles can provide you with an overview of the importance of role models in a young person's life:

What is a role model? by Marilyn Price-Mitchell, PhD.	https://www.rootsofaction.com/role-model
How Role Models Influence Youth Strategies for Success by Marilyn Price-Mitchell, PhD	https://www.rootsofaction.com/role-model
Role Models is an initiative established by Nick Fletcher MP	https://www.centreforsocialjustice.org.uk/wp-content/uploads/2021/01/CSJJ8596-Role-Models-report-201209-WEB.pdf
Positive role models can inspire young people, make them resilient, and prepare them for life beyond school. This aligns with Ofsted's curriculum expectations and the cultural capital needed for young people in life.	https://endchildfoodpoverty.org

Proudly supporting youth social action

Department for Digital, Culture
Media & Sport

COMMUNITY
FUND

Ormiston Trust
Improving life chances

'Protect the vulnerable': Marcus Rashford's open letter to MPs

I encourage you to hear the children's plea and find your humanity. Please reconsider your decision to cancel the food voucher scheme over the summer

Marcus Rashford says child food poverty 'devastatingly' worse

The footballer urges people to write to their MP as a survey indicates food poverty is worsening.

Timing	Task	Resources
10mins	To understand how change can be made when passionate about Social Action.
45mins	Apart from being a football player, Marcus Rashford led the campaign on providing young people with food during Covid. Pupils to research Marcus Rashford and his work towards feeding the young people during the COVID pandemic.	Links to various websites
Home learning	Who is your role model? complete passport page.	Passport

Proudly supporting youth social action

Department for Digital, Culture Media & Sport

Ormiston Trust
Improving life chances